Mike Huckabee: Defender of Traditional Marriage

Mike Huckabee, a Republican, is a vocal defender of traditional marriage. He has been a prominent voice in the debate over same-sex marriage, particularly in the context of the 2008 U.S. presidential election. Huckabee, who served as the Governor of Arkansas from 2007 to 2010, has consistently advocated for the traditional definition of marriage as a union between a man and a woman. He has been a key figure in the "Moral Majority" movement, which seeks to promote conservative values in public life. Huckabee's stance on marriage has been a central part of his political identity, and he has often used his platform to express his views on the issue. He has also been a vocal critic of the Supreme Court's decision in the 2015 Obergefell v. Hodges case, which legalized same-sex marriage nationwide. Huckabee's defense of traditional marriage has made him a popular figure among conservative voters, and he has remained a prominent voice in the ongoing debate over the issue.

...the man and woman shall leave their parents and be joined together as one flesh. That is the mystery of the church and the body of Christ, which is joined together as one flesh. The two will be one flesh. That he who unites himself with the Lord is joined with him in spirit. ...

...All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. ...

Marriage

7 Now for the matters you write about. It is good for a man that he marry. ...

...The Lord is the head of the church, which is his body. ...

Marriage Now!

7 Now for the matter you wrote about. It is good for a man not to marry a "flirt" since the man should have his own life and his own woman should fulfil his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife. The two devote each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that you will not keep your hearts full of your lack of self-control.

 185. willing to live with him, he must
 186. not divorce her. 187. And if a woman
 188. has a husband who is not a believer
 189. and he is willing to live with her, 190. she must not divorce him. 191. For 192. the unbelieving husband has been

 194. unbelieving wife has been sancti-

13But if the unbeliever leaves, let him do so. A believing man or woman is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace." 14How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or, how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

1286 Nevertheless, each one should know the place in life that the Lord has assigned to him and to which God has called him. This is the rule laid down in all the church laws. Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should become uncircumcised. Was uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised. 17 Circumcision is and uncircumcision is nothing. What counts is the love of God and of man.

Marriage

7 Now for the matters you wrote about. It is good for a man not to marry.⁸ But since there is so much immorality, each one of you should have his own wife, as the Lord commanded. A husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband. The wife's body does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife. Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Nevertheless, each one should remain in the place in life that the Lord has assigned to him and to which he has called him. This is the rule. Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should remain uncircumcised. Was he uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised. Circumcision is neither a requirement for salvation nor a hindrance. Keeping God's commandments is what counts. My dear friends,

A dark, grainy photograph of a building at night. The building has several windows, some of which are illuminated from within, creating a warm glow against the dark exterior.
